

PUCERON

Meaning: PUCERON: a small sap-sucking insect, commonly known as an aphid, that often infests plants and can cause damage to foliage.

1. The gardener noticed a significant infestation of pucherons on the rose bushes.
2. To combat the pucherons that were damaging her plants, she turned to organic insecticides.
3. Farmers often seek ways to prevent pucherons from spreading in their crops during spring.
4. The bright green leaves were a telltale sign of pucherons feasting on the young shoots.
5. After researching effective treatments, he found that introducing ladybugs could naturally reduce the pucherons.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/puceron>