

PUD

Meaning: PUD (noun): A sweet dish, typically a dessert, such as a chocolate or fruit-based pudding.

1. The chef prepared a rich chocolate pud that melted in our mouths.
2. After dinner, we indulged in a warm plum pud topped with vanilla ice cream.
3. He always raved about his grandmother's traditional Christmas pud.
4. The restaurant's new dessert menu features an intriguing lavender pud.
5. She couldn't resist a slice of the homemade bread and butter pud for dessert.
6. The chef decided to experiment with a new chocolate pud for dessert.
7. After a long day, all she wanted was a warm bowl of sticky toffee pud.
8. He proudly presented his grandmother's recipe for bread and butter pud at the gathering.
9. The children eagerly dug into their servings of fruit pud at the party.
10. For a comforting treat, nothing beats a classic rice pud topped with cinnamon.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pud>