

PUDDING

Meaning: Pudding is a sweet, creamy dessert or dish that can be made from various ingredients, often served chilled or warm.

1. She savored every bite of the chocolate pudding, relishing its rich, creamy texture.
2. At the family gathering, Aunt May always brought her famous bread pudding, which everyone adored.
3. The children giggled as they stirred the pudding mix, eager to see how it would turn out.
4. After dinner, they indulged in a light vanilla pudding topped with fresh berries.
5. Despite the heat, a chilled lemon pudding was the perfect end to a summer meal.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pudding>