

PUDDLE

Meaning: PUDDLE (noun): A small pool of water that collects on the ground, often after rain.

1. The children jumped with glee as they splashed in the puddle after the rain.
2. She carefully stepped around the puddle to keep her shoes dry.
3. A rainbow appeared in the sky, reflecting beautifully in the puddle below.
4. After the storm, the streets were dotted with puddles that glimmered in the sunlight.
5. He noticed a small frog sitting quietly on the edge of the puddle, waiting for its next meal.
6. The children jumped into the puddle with delight, splashing water everywhere.
7. After the rain, the street was covered with puddles, reflecting the gray sky.
8. She carefully stepped around the puddle to avoid getting her shoes wet.
9. As I walked through the park, I noticed how the sunlight danced on the surface of a nearby puddle.
10. The dog happily leaped into the puddle, soaking his fur and leaving muddy paw prints behind.
11. The children jumped in the puddle, splashing water everywhere.
12. After the rain, a large puddle formed in the middle of the driveway.
13. The reflection of the trees in the puddle created a beautiful mirror image.
14. He found himself staring at the puddle, lost in thought about the day's events.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/puddle>