

PUDIC

Meaning: Pudic: characterized by a sense of modesty or propriety, especially in relation to sexual matters.

1. Her pudic nature made her hesitate to discuss such personal matters openly.
2. The artist's work often explored themes of pudic beauty, revealing the hidden depths of modesty.
3. In the novel, the protagonist's pudic demeanor contrasted sharply with the flamboyant characters around her.
4. He admired her pudic elegance, which spoke volumes without uttering a single word.
5. Despite the scandal surrounding them, she maintained a pudic attitude, shielding her dignity from public scrutiny.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pudic>