

PULING

Meaning: PULING: a high-pitched, mournful sound or cry, often associated with distress or complaint.

1. Puling sounds echoed through the empty hall, adding to the eerie atmosphere.
2. The child's puling was relentless, making it difficult for anyone to concentrate.
3. As the storm raged outside, the puling of the wind created a haunting melody.
4. She couldn't help but feel a pang of sympathy at the puling of the abandoned puppy.
5. Despite the puling from the audience, the magician continued with his performance.
6. The child was puling for his mother after falling off the swing.
7. Despite his puling, the dog refused to leave the park until playtime was over.
8. Her puling could be heard throughout the house as she searched for her favorite toy.
9. The baby's puling echoed in the quiet night, waking everyone in the household.
10. He could hardly concentrate on his work with the puling of the toddler next door.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/puling>