

PULLBACK

Meaning: Pullback: a temporary decline in the price of a stock or market after a period of increase, often viewed as a buying opportunity.

1. The stock market experienced a significant pullback after reaching an all-time high.
2. Investors often view a pullback as a potential opportunity to buy stocks at a lower price.
3. During the game, the team made a strategic pullback to regroup and reassess their tactics.
4. After a brief pullback, the economy showed signs of recovery and growth.
5. She felt a sudden pullback in her enthusiasm as the project faced unexpected challenges.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pullback>