

PULMONIFEROUS

Meaning: Pulmoniferous refers to organisms that possess lungs or lung-like structures, enabling them to breathe air, often found in both aquatic and terrestrial habitats.

1. The pulmoniferous nature of certain species allows them to thrive in both aquatic and terrestrial environments.
2. Researchers are studying pulmoniferous organisms to better understand their respiratory adaptations.
3. The pulmoniferous characteristics of the newly discovered mollusk were a significant finding in marine biology.
4. In habitats with high moisture, pulmoniferous animals often exhibit unique survival strategies.
5. The pulmoniferous traits seen in these amphibians contribute to their ability to breathe through their skin.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pulmoniferous>