

PULP

Meaning: Pulp is a soft, moist mass of crushed or ground material, often derived from plant fibers or fruit, used in various applications such as paper-making or food production.

1. The artist used pulp paper to create unique textures in her sculptures.
2. After the fruits were processed, the remaining pulp was used to make a nutritious snack.
3. The novel was printed on high-quality pulp, ensuring vibrant colors and sharp images.
4. He enjoyed the gritty texture of his favorite orange juice, complete with plenty of pulp.
5. In the recycling industry, pulp is a crucial component for making new paper products.
6. The artist used vibrant colors to create a stunning collage from old magazine pulp.
7. After the apples were pressed, a thick pulp was left behind for composting.
8. The novel was so engrossing that I read it cover to cover in one sitting, completely absorbed by its pulp fiction charm.
9. She prefers to drink her smoothies without any pulp for a smoother texture.
10. During the factory tour, we learned how paper is made from wood pulp and recycled materials.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pulp>