

PULPIT

Meaning: PULPIT: A raised platform or stand in a church from which a preacher delivers sermons or addresses the congregation.

1. The pastor delivered an inspiring sermon from the pulpit, captivating the congregation.
2. She stood proudly at the pulpit, her voice resonating throughout the large hall.
3. The old church features a beautifully carved wooden pulpit that dates back to the 18th century.
4. From the pulpit, he urged his followers to embrace compassion and kindness in their daily lives.
5. After a moment of silence, the minister stepped up to the pulpit to address the grieving family.
6. As the choir sang softly, the minister ascended the pulpit to begin the service.
7. He reached the pulpit and paused for a moment, gathering his thoughts before speaking.
8. The ornate pulpit in the historic church was a symbol of its long-standing traditions.
9. During the debate, he stood at the pulpit, passionately advocating for his beliefs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pulpit>