

PULPITER

Meaning: PULPITER: A raised platform or lectern in a church from which a preacher delivers sermons.

1. The pulpiter stood at the front of the church, ready for the sermon to begin.
2. As the preacher took his place at the pulpiter, the congregation settled into a reverent silence.
3. She admired the craftsmanship of the pulpiter, with intricate carvings telling biblical stories.
4. During the service, the pastor passionately delivered his message from the elevated pulpiter.
5. The old pulpiter, worn by years of use, still held a sense of authority and respect in the chapel.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pulpiter>