

PULSE

Meaning: Pulse: a rhythmic throbbing or beating, especially of the arteries as blood is propelled through them or the regular rhythm of sound or music.

1. The doctor checked her pulse to ensure everything was normal.
2. The rhythmic pulse of the music made everyone want to dance.
3. He felt the pulse of the city as he walked through the bustling streets.
4. After the workout, I could feel my pulse racing in my ears.
5. The artist captured the pulse of life in her vibrant paintings.
6. The doctor checked her pulse to ensure she was stable.
7. The rhythm of the music matched the pulse of the crowded dance floor.
8. He felt a surge of excitement as the pulse of the city enveloped him.
9. With each beat, the pulse of the drum echoed through the hall.
10. She placed her hand on his chest, feeling the steady pulse beneath his skin.
11. The doctor checked her pulse to ensure her heart was beating normally.
12. As the music played, the crowd moved in sync with the vibrant pulse of the bass.
13. He felt a pulse of excitement as he opened the letter revealing his acceptance into the program.
14. In meditation, she focused on her breath and the steady pulse of life within her.
15. The pulse of the city at night was electric, filled with laughter and the sounds of celebration.
16. The doctor checked his pulse to ensure he was stable after the fall.
17. The rhythm of the music matched the pulse of her heart as she danced.
18. He felt a sudden pulse of excitement as the announcement was made.
19. The pulse of the city was evident in the hustle and bustle of the streets.
20. During meditation, she focused on her breathing and the steady pulse of life within her.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pulse>