

PULVINIC

Meaning: Pulvinic refers to a type of organic compound or acid characterized by a specific structural arrangement that influences properties such as color and is relevant in fields like soil science.

1. Pulvinic acids are often studied for their potential applications in soil science.
2. The pulvinic structure in certain organic compounds contributes to their unique color properties.
3. Researchers found that pulvinic compounds can enhance the stability of biochar in agricultural applications.
4. In her thesis, she examined the role of pulvinic substances in the formation of humic acids.
5. The distinct properties of pulvinic derivatives make them valuable in pharmaceuticals and materials science.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pulvinic>