

PUMMEL

Meaning: PUMMEL: to strike repeatedly with great force or to batter relentlessly.

1. The boxer managed to pummel his opponent into submission during the final round.
2. As the storm began to pummel the coastline, residents hurried to secure their homes.
3. He felt the urge to pummel the punching bag after a frustrating day at work.
4. The critic didn't hold back, pummeling the film with harsh reviews and biting commentary.
5. Children laughed and shrieked as they pummelled each other with soft snowballs in the winter park.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pummel>