

PUMP

Meaning: Pump: to force a liquid or gas into or out of something using a device or action.

1. The mechanic had to pump the brakes to ensure they were functioning properly.
  2. She decided to pump up the inflatable pool before the party started.
  3. His enthusiasm began to pump energy into the otherwise dull meeting.
  4. The heart works tirelessly to pump blood throughout the body.
  5. As the sun began to rise, she felt a surge of motivation pump through her veins.
  6. She used a bicycle pump to inflate the flat tire.
  7. The heart's rhythm began to pump stronger as the excitement grew.
  8. He decided to pump more energy into his workout routine this week.
  9. During the summer, they set up a water pump to irrigate the garden.
  10. The children watched in awe as the magician made the balloon pump into a rabbit.
  11. The athlete spent hours in the gym to pump up his muscles before the competition.
  12. She needed to pump the tires of her bicycle before going for a ride.
  13. The old well had a hand pump that provided fresh water in the summer months.
  14. As the storm approached, they had to pump out the flooded basement to prevent further damage.
  15. He felt a rush of excitement when the music began to pump through the speakers at the party.
  16. The mechanic used a special pump to inflate the tires quickly.
  17. She felt her heart pump with excitement as the concert began.
  18. Farmers often rely on a water pump to irrigate their fields during dry seasons.
  19. He decided to pump iron at the gym to build up his strength for the competition.
  20. The children watched in awe as the magician made a balloon pump seemingly come to life.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pump>