PUMPING

Meaning: PUMPING: The act of exerting force to move a substance, such as lifting weights to enhance physical strength or driving water through a channel.

1. The athlete was pumping iron at the gym to build muscle.
2. As the river swelled, the floodwaters were pumping through the streets.
3. She felt her heart pumping rapidly as she approached the finish line.
4. The mechanic was busy pumping the tires of the car before the road trip.
5. He listened to the music pumping through the speakers at the lively party.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pumping