

PUNCTURE

Meaning: PUNCTURE: A small hole or tear made by a sharp object, often resulting in loss of air or liquid.

1. The car came to a sudden stop after a sharp object caused a puncture in its tire.
2. During the hike, he discovered a puncture in his water bottle that made it useless.
3. The doctor carefully examined the patient for any signs of a puncture wound from the accident.
4. She felt a sharp pain in her foot after stepping on something that resulted in a puncture.
5. To repair the bike, he needed to patch the puncture before taking it for a ride again.
6. The sharp rock caused a puncture in my bicycle tire.
7. She noticed a small puncture in the inflatable pool and quickly patched it.
8. After a sudden loud pop, we realized that the puncture in the air mattress was the problem.
9. The doctor carefully examined the wound to ensure there was no deeper puncture.
10. His careless handling of the tools resulted in a puncture to the car's gas tank.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/puncture>