

PUNDLE

Meaning: PUNDLE (verb): To playfully gather or collect items, often in a haphazard or messy manner.

1. The children were excited to pundle through the autumn leaves, creating a colorful mess.
2. As the rain started to pour, we decided to pundle our picnic items back into the car.
3. She seemed to pundle her way through the crowd, searching for her lost friend.
4. The artist would often pundle her paintbrushes together to create unique textures on the canvas.
5. During the festival, they would pundle the decorations together, adding a vibrant touch to the event.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pundle>