

PUNGENTLY

Meaning: PUNGENTLY: In a manner that is intensely strong and sharp in smell or taste.

1. The cheese was pungently aromatic, filling the entire room with its strong scent.
2. As the spices simmered on the stove, they wafted through the air pungently, enticing everyone nearby.
3. She described the experience as pungently vivid, with colors and sounds that overwhelmed her senses.
4. The flowers in the garden bloomed pungently, attracting bees and butterflies from miles away.
5. His opinion was pungently expressed, leaving no doubt about his feelings on the matter.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pungently>