

PUNY

Meaning: PUNY: small and weak in size or strength.

1. The puny little plant struggled to survive in the shadow of the towering trees.
2. Despite his puny frame, he possessed an indomitable spirit that inspired everyone around him.
3. Her efforts seemed puny in comparison to the monumental task ahead of them.
4. The puny excuses he offered only served to frustrate his boss further.
5. In the grand scheme of the universe, our worries often feel puny and insignificant.
6. The puny kitten struggled to keep up with its larger siblings during playtime.
7. Despite his puny stature, he had an impressive ability to inspire those around him.
8. The puny tree swayed in the wind, dwarfed by the towering oaks nearby.
9. She felt a sense of defeat when her puny efforts went unnoticed in the grand scheme of things.
10. His puny excuse for missing the meeting didn't convince anyone in the room.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/puny>