

PURFLED

Meaning: Purfled: adorned or embellished with a decorative border or trim, often enhancing the overall aesthetic.

1. The artist purfled the edges of the canvas with intricate gold leaf, giving it a luxurious finish.
2. Her gown was purfled with delicate lace, adding a touch of elegance to her ensemble.
3. The manuscript was purfled in a way that drew attention to its ornate illustrations.
4. During the restoration, the conservator purfled the antique book to preserve its historical value.
5. He admired how the designer purfled the handbag with contrasting colors, making it a standout piece.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/purfled>