

PURIFICATION

Meaning: Purification is the process of removing impurities or contaminants to achieve cleanliness or clarity, often for health, safety, or emotional well-being.

1. The purification of water is essential for safe drinking in many communities.
2. Her meditation practice is a form of emotional purification that helps her find inner peace.
3. The purification rituals in the temple are performed to cleanse the space and the participants.
4. Scientists are constantly researching new methods for the purification of air pollutants.
5. After the storm, the purification of the river was initiated to restore its natural ecosystem.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/purification>