

PURIFICATIVE

Meaning: Purificative: having the quality or effect of cleansing or purifying, particularly in a physical or spiritual context.

1. The purificative properties of the herbal tea helped cleanse her system.
2. Many cultures have rituals that incorporate purificative elements to promote spiritual health.
3. The scientist studied the purificative effects of the new compound on contaminated water.
4. In ancient practices, certain herbs were revered for their purificative benefits on the body and mind.
5. The meditation session included purificative techniques aimed at clearing negative energy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/purificative>