

PURIST

Meaning: A purist is a person who adheres strictly to traditional methods or principles in a particular field, often opposing modern adaptations or changes.

1. A purist in the culinary world often insists on using traditional techniques and ingredients.
2. As a purist, she believed that the original version of the artwork should never be altered.
3. The purist approach to music emphasizes live performances over digital recordings.
4. Many purists argue that modern technology detracts from the authenticity of classic literature.
5. His purist attitude towards film often leads him to reject remakes and adaptations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/purist>