

PURITANIZE

Meaning: To puritanize means to make something more strict, moral, or austere by removing elements considered inappropriate or controversial.

1. The school's administration decided to puritanize the curriculum by removing any controversial literature.
2. In an effort to puritanize their lifestyle, they eliminated all forms of entertainment deemed inappropriate.
3. Critics argued that the new policies would puritanize the art scene, stifling creativity and expression.
4. The community's desire to puritanize their values led to stricter regulations on public behavior.
5. Her attempt to puritanize the event resulted in a lack of diversity and a more somber atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/puritanize>