

PURLOINER

Meaning: Purloiner: a person who steals or takes something secretly or unlawfully.

1. The purloiner slipped silently through the shadows, careful not to disturb anyone in the quiet house.
2. She was known as a skilled purloiner, able to take what she wanted without anyone noticing.
3. The old man had been a purloiner in his youth, stealing from the rich to help the poor.
4. Caught in the act, the purloiner tried to deny his intentions, but the evidence was overwhelming.
5. The notorious purloiner left a trail of stolen goods, each item a testament to his cunning and craft.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/purloiner>