

PURSEFUL

Meaning: Purseful (noun): the amount or contents contained in a purse, typically referring to money or small items.

1. She opened her purseful of receipts and began sorting through them.
2. The old woman counted her purseful of coins to ensure she had enough for the market.
3. With a purseful of dreams, she set off to make her mark on the world.
4. He found a purseful of forgotten memories tucked away in an old bag.
5. The children gathered around, excited by the prospect of a purseful of treats.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/purseful>