

PURULENT

Meaning: Purulent refers to a substance or discharge that is thick, yellowish, and contains pus, often indicating infection.

1. The doctor noted that the wound was purulent, indicating a possible infection.
2. After the surgery, the patient developed a purulent discharge that raised concerns among the medical staff.
3. The veterinarian examined the dog's ears and found them to be purulent and inflamed.
4. In some cases, purulent bronchitis can lead to severe respiratory complications if left untreated.
5. The lab results confirmed the presence of purulent material in the patient's sinuses.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/purulent>