

PURULENTLY

Meaning: Purulently means in a manner characterized by the production of pus or thick, infected discharge.

1. The wound was healing purulently, with a thick discharge that made the doctor concerned.
2. After days of neglect, the infection spread purulently, requiring immediate medical attention.
3. The purulently inflamed tissue made it difficult for the surgeon to operate effectively.
4. Her throat felt raw and purulently swollen, a clear sign of a severe infection.
5. The doctor warned that if the condition continued to progress purulently, it could lead to serious complications.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/purulently>