

PUTID

Meaning: Putid (adjective): having a foul or offensive odor; rotten or decayed.

1. The ancient manuscript was so putid that even the faintest whiff was unbearable.
2. He recoiled at the putid smell emanating from the abandoned building.
3. In the depths of the swamp, they discovered a putid mass that had long been forgotten.
4. The putid leftovers in the fridge were a clear sign that it was time for a thorough clean.
5. Her reaction to the putid odor was a mix of disgust and amusement at the absurdity of the situation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/putid>