

PUTREFACTIVE

Meaning: Putrefactive refers to the process of decomposition in organic material, often involving the breakdown by bacteria and characterized by the release of foul odors.

1. The putrefactive process rapidly decomposed the organic material, releasing an unpleasant odor.
2. Bacteria play a crucial role in the putrefactive stages of decomposition, breaking down complex organic compounds.
3. In the damp environment, the putrefactive substances attracted a swarm of flies seeking to lay their eggs.
4. Scientists study putrefactive organisms to understand their impact on waste management and nutrient cycling.
5. The putrefactive remains of the dead animal served as a vital food source for various scavengers in the ecosystem.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/putrefactive>