

PUTRESCIN

Meaning: Putrescine is a colorless, toxic organic compound with a strong, unpleasant odor, produced during the decomposition of amino acids and associated with the decay of organic matter.

1. Putrescine is often associated with the foul odor of decaying organic matter.
2. The presence of putrescine in the soil can indicate the breakdown of protein-rich materials.
3. Researchers are studying how putrescine affects plant growth and development.
4. During decomposition, putrescine is produced by the breakdown of amino acids.
5. High levels of putrescine can be toxic to certain microorganisms in the environment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/putrescin>