

PUTRIDNESS

Meaning: Putridness refers to the state of being decayed or rotten, characterized by a foul smell and often associated with decomposition.

1. The putridness of the decaying food filled the entire kitchen with a nauseating odor.
2. In the depths of the swamp, the putridness of stagnant water created a breeding ground for disease.
3. The cemetery was filled with the putridness of rotting flowers, a stark reminder of the passage of time.
4. She recoiled at the putridness of the fish left out in the sun, unable to mask her disgust.
5. Despite the putridness surrounding the abandoned building, the artist found beauty in the decay.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/putridness>