

PUTRIFICATION

Meaning: Putrification is the process of decay or decomposition of organic matter, often resulting in the release of foul odors.

1. The putrification of organic matter in the swamp released a foul odor that permeated the air.
2. Scientists studied the putrification process to better understand how bacteria decompose waste materials.
3. During the summer, the putrification of the discarded food in the trash can attracted a swarm of flies.
4. The putrification of the dead animal was accelerated by the warm, humid weather conditions.
5. In ancient times, people believed that the putrification of corpses was a sign of spiritual unrest.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/putrification>