

PUZZLE-HEADED

Meaning: Puzzle-headed: characterized by confusion or a lack of clarity in thought, often resulting in difficulty expressing oneself or concentrating.

1. She always seemed a bit puzzle-headed, struggling to find the right words in conversations.
2. His puzzle-headed demeanor made it difficult for him to focus during important meetings.
3. After hours of studying, she felt completely puzzle-headed and unable to retain any information.
4. The puzzle-headed artist often created abstract pieces that challenged conventional interpretations.
5. Despite his puzzle-headed nature, he managed to solve the complex problem in record time.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/puzzle-headed>