

PYROMORPHOUS

Meaning: Pyromorphous refers to materials or substances that exhibit changes in form or structure due to exposure to heat or fire.

1. The artist's latest installation featured pyromorphous sculptures that transformed under the light of the flames.
2. Geologists studied the pyromorphous mineral deposits to understand the volcanic activity in the region.
3. In chemistry class, we learned about pyromorphous compounds and their unique properties when exposed to heat.
4. The pyromorphous nature of the material made it ideal for applications in high-temperature environments.
5. His fascination with pyromorphous textures inspired him to experiment with fire in his ceramic work.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pyromorphous>