

QUACK

Meaning: Quack (noun): a fraudulent or unqualified practitioner of medicine; also, the characteristic sound made by a duck.

1. The doctor was exposed as a quack after several patients reported ineffective treatments.
2. As the duck waddled by, it let out a cheerful quack that echoed through the park.
3. Many people were skeptical of his claims, suspecting he was just a quack trying to make a quick buck.
4. She couldn't help but laugh at the silly quack of the inflatable duck floating in the pool.
5. Despite his flashy advertisements, the so-called health guru turned out to be nothing more than a quack.
6. The doctor was exposed as a quack after several patients reported serious side effects from his unproven treatments.
7. During the fair, the children delighted in the sound of the ducks quacking near the pond.
8. She couldn't help but quack with laughter when she saw the silly antics of the ducklings.
9. The so-called health guru was nothing more than a quack, peddling miracle cures that had no scientific backing.
10. As the sun set, the tranquil sound of quacking filled the air, signaling the end of the day for the waterfowl.
11. The doctor dismissed the new treatment as nothing more than a quack remedy.
12. After hearing his outrageous claims, many labeled him a quack who preyed on the desperate.
13. The pond was alive with the cheerful quack of ducks enjoying the sunny afternoon.
14. Despite his charm, she quickly realized he was just a quack with no real qualifications.
15. The quack echoed across the water, signaling the arrival of spring in the park.