

QUACKISM

Meaning: Quackism refers to the promotion of unproven or fraudulent medical practices and beliefs, often characterized by a lack of critical thinking and reliance on misinformation.

1. Quackism often thrives in environments where critical thinking is undervalued.
2. The rise of social media has exacerbated the spread of quackism among the public.
3. Many people are drawn to quackism because it offers simple answers to complex problems.
4. Scientists work tirelessly to combat the misinformation propagated by quackism.
5. Quackism can undermine trust in legitimate healthcare practices and professionals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/quackism>