

QUAIL

Meaning: To quail means to feel or show fear or apprehension.

1. The hunters decided to quail beneath the dense brush when they heard the approaching footsteps.
2. As the storm raged outside, she felt a quail of anxiety grip her heart.
3. The chef prepared a sumptuous dish featuring roasted quail with a rich berry sauce.
4. During the picnic, the children were thrilled to catch sight of a quail darting through the tall grass.
5. After hearing the news, he could only quail at the thought of what was to come.
6. The hunters decided to quail at the sight of the approaching storm.
7. As the evening fell, the garden was alive with the gentle calls of quail.
8. She felt her heart quail in fear when she heard the unexpected noise.
9. To her surprise, he began to quail at the thought of speaking in public.
10. He prepared a gourmet dish featuring roasted quail with wild rice.
11. The chef decided to serve quail instead of chicken for a more elegant dinner.
12. As the sun set, the sound of quail calling filled the warm evening air.
13. She felt a quail of fear as she approached the edge of the dark forest.
14. In the garden, we spotted a pair of quail scurrying through the underbrush.
15. The artist captured the delicate beauty of a quail in her latest painting.
16. The hunter was thrilled when he spotted a covey of quail in the brush.
17. After a long day of hiking, we enjoyed a delicious meal of roasted quail.
18. The soft call of the quail echoed through the early morning mist.
19. She decided to quail at the thought of speaking in front of the large audience.
20. His confidence began to quail as the deadline approached and the pressure mounted.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/quail>