

QUAKY

Meaning: Quaky: characterized by shaking or trembling, often due to instability or nervousness.

1. The ground felt quaky beneath my feet as the earthquake struck.
2. Her voice had a quaky quality that made her sound nervous during the presentation.
3. The old wooden bridge gave a quaky creak as we carefully crossed over it.
4. After the storm, the once calm lake had a quaky surface, rippling with every gust of wind.
5. The toddler's quaky laughter filled the room with joy as he played with his new toy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/quaky>