

QUAP

Meaning: Quap (verb): To leap or jump into a soft, muddy area or to propel an object with a forceful throw.

1. The children laughed as they jumped into the quap of the muddy puddle.
2. She felt a surge of excitement as she prepared to quap the ball across the field.
3. During the festival, the dancers performed a traditional quap that captivated the audience.
4. He couldn't help but quap with joy when he received the good news.
5. The team needed to quap their strategy to ensure a win in the final game.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/quap>