

QUARREL

Meaning: A quarrel is a heated argument or disagreement between individuals.

1. They had a bitter quarrel over the best way to handle the project.
2. Despite their long friendship, a small misunderstanding led to a heated quarrel.
3. After the quarrel, they both realized how trivial their disagreement had been.
4. The quarrel escalated quickly, drawing the attention of everyone nearby.
5. To avoid a quarrel, she decided to keep her opinions to herself during the discussion.
6. They had a quarrel over the best approach to solve the problem.
7. Despite their quarrel, they managed to work together effectively.
8. The children were admonished for starting a quarrel during recess.
9. After a long quarrel, they finally agreed to put their differences aside.
10. Her quarrel with her neighbor escalated into a full-blown argument.
11. The siblings had a quarrel over who would get to use the family car that weekend.
12. Despite their quarrel, they managed to resolve their differences and remain friends.
13. It was hard to believe that a simple misunderstanding could escalate into such a bitter quarrel.
14. After the quarrel, they both felt a sense of regret for the harsh words exchanged.
15. Their constant quarrel over trivial matters began to wear down their once strong friendship.
16. They had a loud quarrel over who would take the last piece of cake.
17. Despite their quarrel, they managed to reconcile by the end of the day.
18. The neighbors often had a quarrel about the noise coming from their yard.
19. After the quarrel, she realized that their friendship was more important than being right.
20. His tendency to quarrel with others made it difficult for him to maintain close relationships.
21. The siblings had a quarrel over who would get the last piece of pie.
22. Despite their quarrel, they managed to resolve their differences by the end of the day.
23. The heated quarrel between the two friends left a lingering tension in the air.

24. After a lengthy quarrel, they both realized how trivial their disagreement had been.

25. In the midst of their quarrel, they both forgot the reasons why they had become friends in the first place.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/quarrel>