

QUAVERER

Meaning: Quaverer: a person whose voice shakes or trembles, often due to nervousness or emotional distress.

1. The quaverer hesitated before delivering his speech, his voice trembling with anxiety.
2. As the quaverer practiced in front of the mirror, he tried to steady his vocal fluctuations.
3. The audience was charmed by the quaverer's unique style, which added emotion to the song.
4. In the midst of the performance, the quaverer's nerves got the best of him, causing his pitch to waver.
5. Her quaverer tendencies were endearing, making her rendition of the classic tune all the more memorable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/quaverer>