

QUININIC

Meaning: Quinonic refers to a type of organic compound related to or derived from quinine or quinic acid, often involved in the synthesis of alkaloids and studied for medicinal properties.

1. Quinonic acid is a key component in the synthesis of various alkaloids.
2. The researchers analyzed the quinic compounds for their potential medicinal properties.
3. Quinanic derivatives have shown promise in enhancing neuroprotective effects.
4. In the realm of organic chemistry, quinic structures often serve as valuable intermediates.
5. The study focused on the role of quinic acid in metabolic pathways related to energy production.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/quininic>