

QUIP

Meaning: A quip is a clever or witty remark made in a lighthearted or humorous manner.

1. She always had a clever quip ready to lighten the mood during serious discussions.
2. His quip about the weather made everyone laugh, even on the dreariest of days.
3. After the long meeting, she made a quip that perfectly captured everyone's exhaustion.
4. The comedian's quick quips kept the audience engaged throughout the entire performance.
5. In his speech, he included a witty quip that underscored the importance of teamwork.
6. She always has a clever quip ready to lighten the mood during tense meetings.
7. His quip about the weather made everyone laugh despite the gloomy atmosphere.
8. During the interview, she cleverly used a quip to showcase her sense of humor.
9. The comedian's latest show was full of sharp quips that kept the audience engaged.
10. He couldn't resist making a quip about the awkward silence that followed his question.
11. She always had a clever quip ready to lighten the mood during tense meetings.
12. His quick quip about the situation made everyone burst into laughter.
13. After hearing her friend's quip, he couldn't help but admire her wit.
14. The comedian's quip about everyday life resonated with the entire audience.
15. Despite the seriousness of the topic, he managed to insert a humorous quip that broke the ice.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/quip>