

QUIVER

Meaning: Quiver (verb): to shake or tremble with a slight, rapid motion.

1. The leaves began to quiver in the gentle breeze.
2. She could feel her hands quiver with excitement as she opened the gift.
3. His voice started to quiver as he spoke about his lost friend.
4. The quiver of the bowstring signaled the release of the arrow.
5. A sense of fear made her heart quiver in her chest.
6. The leaves began to quiver in the gentle breeze of the afternoon.
7. She felt a quiver of excitement as she opened the long-awaited letter.
8. His voice started to quiver when he spoke about his childhood memories.
9. As the thunder rolled in, the small dog would quiver in fear beneath the table.
10. The archer steadied her breath, trying to suppress the quiver in her hand before releasing the arrow.
11. The leaves began to quiver in the gentle breeze of the autumn afternoon.
12. She could feel her hands quiver with excitement as she opened the letter.
13. The archer watched the arrow quiver briefly before it soared into the air.
14. His voice would quiver slightly whenever he spoke about his childhood.
15. As the thunder rumbled overhead, the small animal started to quiver in fear.
16. Her voice would quiver with emotion whenever she spoke about her childhood.
17. He felt a quiver of excitement as the concert was about to start.
18. The rabbit lay still, but its nose would quiver at the slightest sound.
19. She tried to hide her fear, but her hands began to quiver uncontrollably.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/quiver>