

QUOOK

Meaning: Quook (verb): to make a low, quacking sound, often expressing surprise or contentment.

1. The unusual sound of a quook startled the birds from their perch.
2. After a long day, she let out a satisfied quook as she sank into the warm bath.
3. In the quiet of the night, the distant quook of the frog echoed through the marsh.
4. He wasn't sure what caused the quook, but it certainly piqued his curiosity.
5. The children laughed at the funny quook that came from the toy as they played.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/quook>