

RABATINE

Meaning: RABATINE: A decorative or artistic element that serves as a focal point in a composition, often characterized by vibrant colors or intricate designs.

1. The artist's latest work features a vibrant rabatine that draws the viewer's eye immediately.
2. In the intricate design of the garden, the rabatine serves as a focal point, showcasing the beauty of nature.
3. During the exhibition, the curator explained the significance of the rabatine in traditional art forms.
4. The rabatine was crafted with such precision that it seemed to come alive under the gallery lights.
5. As we explored the museum, we marveled at the unique rabatine integrated into the ancient architecture.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rabatine>