

RABBI

Meaning: Rabbi: a Jewish religious leader and teacher, often responsible for conducting services and providing spiritual guidance to the community.

1. The rabbi delivered a heartfelt sermon that resonated with everyone in the congregation.
2. After years of study, she was finally ordained as a rabbi, ready to lead her community.
3. Many people turn to their rabbi for guidance during difficult times in their lives.
4. The rabbi organized a community event to celebrate the Jewish New Year with music and food.
5. As a scholar of Jewish law, the rabbi often engages in discussions about ethics and morality.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rabbi>