RABBIN

Meaning: RABBIN (noun): A Jewish religious leader or teacher, particularly one who interprets sacred texts and provides spiritual guidance to the community.

1. The rabbin offered insightful interpretations of ancient texts during the lecture.
2. In times of crisis, the community often turned to the rabbin for guidance and support.
3. Many young students aspire to follow in the footsteps of a respected rabbin.
4. The rabbin's wisdom was evident in his compassionate approach to resolving conflicts.
5. During the festival, the rabbin led the prayers with great reverence and enthusiasm.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rabbin